NEW DEBT PLAN OFFERED BY FRANCE

ATMOSPHERE OF OPTIMISM AND HOPEFULNESS PREVAILS

Payment of $25,000,000 Annually Is Probable With a Gradual Rise of To $100,000,000 a Year—Inclusion of Guarantee Clause Is Passed Up By Paris Is Report—Settle At All Cost Is Plea of Premier Briand.

France came forward Friday with a new offer to settle her $4,000,000,000 war debt and shortly afterward the senate decisively refused to reconsider its approval of the $2,000,000,000 debt settlement.

The French proposal, details of which were guarded closely, was submitted formally to the American debt commission by Ambassador Henri Berenger, who has full power to act for his government. It will be considered by the Americans at a session Saturday.

The new offer was received in an atmosphere of optimism, with official expressions of hopefulness from the White House and elsewhere that a settlement will be arranged and that it would mean a long step in the direction of stabilizing word finances.

The senate action on the Italian debt completed the last legislative step in the two countries to bring the agreement into force. It will become effective as soon as President Coolidge affixes his signature.

Senator James A. Reed, Missouri, Democrat, moved for reconsideration, so the senate might consider amendments by which Italy, upon demand, would give bonds to the American government in the amount of the principal and interest. This motion was voted down, however, by almost as decisive a majority as that Wednesday to approve the agreement.

The vote was 43 to 24 and Wednesday it was 54 to 33.

While the new French offer was not made public, there were indications that it went further toward meeting America's demands than the proposal of the unsuccessful Caillaux mission of last summer.

The 68 year settlement program advanced by Joseph Caillaux for France at that time, is understood to have been reduced to 62 years, the basis of agreement with other debtor nations. It also is understood that France will not insist upon the guaranteed clause relieving it of payment in the event Germany fails to meet its reparations.

France also is understood to be ready to pay $25,000,000 annually including this year, and to graduate its payments to $100,000,000 annually, so as to meet its full debt.

Representatives of the two nations lost little time in settling down to business.

The usual welcoming formalities were dispensed with and when Ambassador Berenger, accompanied by two assistants, appeared before the committee he was invited immediately to make his offer.

This was presented in French and immediately afterward M. Berenger departed, leaving the English translation of the complicated financial program he had proposed with the commission.

Ambassador Berenger, who was a member of the Caillaux mission, had been in conference with Secretary Andrew W. Mellon for the last two months and these conversations are understood to have smoothed the way considerably for a more definite understanding between France and this country.

He was taken before Mayor E. Riggins, of New Holland, and was found guilty and was fined $50 and costs. Being unable to pay, he was brought to this city and placed in the county jail.

OYSTERS HER FIELD

Miss Betsy Anne Herrold, twenty, the only girl student enrolled in the college of fisheries at the University of Washington, will certainly know her oysters when she graduates, for that is exactly what she enrolled for. She wants to know all about oysters as she declares she is going into business with her father who raised oysters in large quantities at Ilwaco, on Willapa bay, in southwest Washington.

E. L. DOHENY REGISTERS AS REPUBLICAN

Political affiliations of Edward L. Doheny, who for years was an influential figure in Democratic ranks have been transferred to the Republican party.

In the background politically since his split with the Democrats over the naval oil reserve scandal in 1924, the oil producer announced in an interview Friday night that he had registered as a Republican for the first time "because I decided to affiliate with and support the party which more than any other embodies the forces and policies which have produced our unprecedented era of prosperity."

Altho Mr. Doheny spoke of his registration as his first affiliation with the Republican party, William Kerr, registrar of voters, said that records showed the oil magnate had registered as a Republican in 1922 and 1924, his last registration as a Democrat being in 1920.

LOCAL SEASON OF BASEBALL OPENS SUNDAY

Tomorrow will see the opening of the 1926 baseball season in Ringtown-on-the-Scioto. Circleville will be represented by the Eagles, as last year and their opponents for the lid-raiser will be the classy aggregation from St. Aloysius, Columbus. Many of the local favorites will appear on the Eagle lineup, which will be much like last years.

The game will be called at 2:15 at Mason's field. The Fraternal Order of Eagles, in their policy of giving Circleville good athletics, deserves the support of every fan.

Sir Oliver Lodge Claims Radio Problem Is Solved

London.—The Evening Standard says that, after three years of research, Sir Oliver Lodge, the eminent scientist, has solved the problem of the wireless "howler" or oscillator, which has baffled experts throughout the world.

Briefly, the paper says, the discovery will insure perfect reception without aerial tuning, thus avoiding the use of reaction (regeneration). It will not add to the cost of new sets, but will mean the alteration of existing receivers.

Sir Oliver expects to publish the results of his activities soon.

Tailor-made Costumes

Among Dog's Necessities

New York.—Francie, a four-pound black and tan expert of what the well-dressed dog will wear, arrived on the liner Olympic from France with his master and mistress, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Williams of New York, who said France cost them $4,000 a year.

The trip, Mrs. Williams said, was made to replenish Francie's wardrobe at a fancy tailor's shop in Paris. It included, she explained, spring styles in sport clothes, with pockets for gloves and handkerchiefs; evening clothes, morning costumes, pajamas and other "necessities."

Francie, his mistress said, seldom drank, but appreciated good liquor in a mild highball at tea time. American bootleg, however, is offensive to Francie's taste.

She said she and Mr. Williams had four other dogs, the annual expense of which was $23,000 a year.

Mrs. Williams explained that in figuring the annual expenses of her dogs she always included the money she spent on them for travel, hotel accommodations, food and wardrobes.

YOUNG WOMAN WAS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Miss Wanda Scott Met Death and Companions Hurt—Auto Struck Bridge.

In an accident Friday evening near the Caldwell farm on the Jackson pike, Miss Wanda Scott, of 884 Buck street, Columbus, was killed and Howard Shick and William Horsbach, also of Columbus, were injured. Mr. Shick sustained a broken arm and Mr. Horsbach's back was injured. The former was taken to his home and the latter was taken to Mercy hospital. Dr. Lloyd Jonnes gave the injured first aid.

The Mader & Ebert ambulance took the body of the girl to Schoedinger's undertaking establishment in Columbus and the injured were taken to Columbus by their friends in other cars. The driver of the car was unable to keep the road and negotiate a hill that ends near a bridge, his machine ran off the road and in coming back ran into a tree, swerved and hit the end of a girder on the bridge and the car toppled over going into a small ditch upside down. Miss Scott's skull was fractured and she was removed to the home of Ot Rader near the scene of the accident, where she died.

She was eighteen years of age and was a daughter of Mrs. Rowland Esswein. Miss Scott had accompanied a party of fifteen of her friends from Columbus early in the evening to this county, where they enjoyed a weiner and marshmallow roast on the farm of William Hoover. About 11 o'clock the party broke up and started homeward.

The crash of the machine when it struck the bridge was heard by Mr. and Mrs. Rader in their home. They had just returned and they answered the call for help and did everything in their power to help the unfortunate party.

Blotting Paper

Housekeepers who have learned the value of white blotting paper keep a supply on hand. It is so useful in taking up water spilled on a polished table, or when grease is dropped on table linen during the meal. It acts much quicker than cloth or napkin and does not absorb. It is excellent for blotting grease from fritters and other cookery.

Mines Must Have Wood

There are mining and excavation operations of many different kinds. It would be almost impossible to continue mining operations without wood for mine props. This industry calls on the forest for 200,000,000 cubic feet of wood every year. To get out coal it is necessary to have wood.

Danger in Acetylene Torch

The flame of an acetylene torch is injurious to the eye in proportion to its brightness. If it is so bright that on looking at it and then winking the eyes an outline of the flame can be seen on the retina, goggles should be worn. The effect is the same as that of looking directly at the sun. The parts of the retina affected are apt to be permanently injured.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS

Washington, April 22.—(UP.)—Mayor William Dever, of Chicago told the Senate Prohibition Committee today that he threatened to go to President Coolidge before he could get co-operation of federal authorities in stamping out liquor corruption.

His testimony climaxed the day in the prohibition hearing which was featured by revelations of expenditures of E. C. Dinwiddie, superintendent of the National Temperance Bureau, in agitating for prohibition, and the plea of J. Pat Murphy, postmaster-preacher-bartender of the Kentucky hills, that prohibition be maintained.

Dinwiddie said his organization has received around $16,000 for prohibition agitation in the last two years.

Murphy declared prohibition had transferred the mountains of Kentucky and West Virginia from a "hell spot of shooting irons into a nice quiet place to live."

Formation of the Tidewater-Associated Oil Company by merger of the Associated Oil Co., and the Tidewater Company is, not in violation of anti-trust laws, Attorney General Sargent announced today. Department of justice agents investigated the merger, and Sargent said their reports did not warrant instituting action under the anti-trust laws against the company. The government he said, could reopen the case at any time.

The Holiday bill, designed to rid the country of alien criminals, was reported favorably to the House today by the immigration committee. The measure provides for immediate deportation of aliens, gunmen and peddlers of narcotics.

The House agriculture committee today voted to authorize Rep. Aswell, Democrat, Louisiana, to submit his farm relief bill to the House together with the Tincher and Haugen bills when they should be reported. Aswell's bill with a $10,000,000 appropriation, would set up a national system of co-operative marketing and create an agency to function in an administrative capacity. Meanwhile, Chairman Snell, Republican, New York, of the Rule Committee, announced that agriculture legislation would be given the right of way in the House as soon as a report was made by the agriculture committee.

For the tenth time in the history of the Nation, House managers appeared in the Senate today to advise conviction of an impeached federal official. At 2 p. m. nine selected managers filed into the Senate chamber behind the sergeant-at-arms to report the impeachment of Judge Geo. W. English for the southern district of Illinois and ask the Senate to try him.

The Jones bill granting consent of Congress to W. D. Comer and Wesley Vandercreek to construct a bridge across the Columbia River from Long View, Washington, to Rainier, Oregon, was reported favorably today by the Senate commerce commission.

Recovered Lost Money

After being covered with hay for more than six months in a mow on the Sheddick farm, at South Woodstock, Vt., where it was lost early last July, a pocketbook containing a ten-dollar bill and some small change was found, musty, and showing that it had been nibbled by mice, but with its contents intact. It belonged to William Burns. Mr. Burns lost the purse while haying. Careful search was made for it the following day.

San Antonio, Texas, April 22.—(UP.)—Missing for two years from her home in Memphis, Tenn., Josie Nickols, 15, has been restored to her mother here by court order. The girl was found in an institution in this city by her mother, Mrs. Annie Springer, after she had received a letter from a friend giving her the tip.

Reading by Sound

Teaching the blind to read by means of different shades of sound is a new and remarkable method invented by Professor Rosing, an oculist of Leningrad, Russia, says Popular Science Monthly. Every letter of the alphabet will be expressed by a different sound. So far, sounds have been contrived for 18 letters of the alphabet. The sounds are used, too, to see objects. Experiments showed, it is claimed, that children using the sound apparatus were able to define many articles in a room and recognize persons who were passing.

He did his gift-shopping at the jeweler's!

A JEWELRY PURCHASE IS AN INVESTMENT IN PERMANENT VALUES

Men and nations pass. But their jewels remain. Of all the possessions of ancient civilizations, the most enduring have been the tokens wrought in precious stones and metals. Gone are the palaces of Egyptian kings; their gorgeous apparel and equipages. But scattered among the museums of today, in all parts of the world, many of their jewels are still intact; more beautiful and infinitely more valuable than ever.

Today, as always, a purchase at the jeweler's is an investment in permanent values. Jewelry is one of the few luxury-commodities which can be "consumed" year by year, decade after decade, without materially lessening the quantity or quality of the basic value. Building up a line of jewelry means building up an asset-heritage for future generations, while enjoying the delight and charm of beautiful adornment in the building. The jewelry business is among the fastest-growing in America, because, more and more, keen Americans are putting their shopping money into imperishable values.

OLD "STONE BOAT" STILL AT WORK IN SAN FRANCISCO BAY

Concrete Ship McKittrick Belies the Derision Handed it in Shipping Circles.

San Francisco, Cal.—Alluded to as "it" by seafaring men rather than "she" as is befitting any worthy seagoing craft of steel or wood, the concrete ship McKittrick is doing daily duty in the bay of San Francisco that belies the derision of shipping circles.

Although the war was over before the McKittrick took the ways—under the coldly official designation of "Concrete Tanker No. 1"—the ship was nevertheless, a creature of the great conflict. Its genesis was the need of the nation to build boats faster than the enemy's submarines could sink them.

Private builders working under the critical eye of the government laid down three concrete vessels of 7,500 tons. The first of these, the Faith, was at the outset pronounced a success for it made the trial trip in first-class fashion. But under more severe conditions it developed a condemning unwieldiness. Similarly, the other two proved failures, but proflig by experience, the government had the tanker built.

A lighter mixture was used and improvements were effected in the steel reinforcing. Triple expansion engines of 1,500-horse power were installed. The tanker went to Mexico on its test and, returning with a load of oil, weathered a tremendous storm in the Caribbean sea. The commanding officer declared it as seaworthy as any ship he had ever handled; but the war was over.

There was not a plentiful supply of steel and timber. The boat which had cost about a half million to build was about to be sold by the shipping board for $15,000.

George D. Zeh, traffic manager of the Associated Oil company, thought the tanker was worth more than this to his company. He was deaf to the ridicule of his associates and negotiated the purchase.

Zeh has kept a record of the tanker's performance and the "stone boat" about which he has been joshed has paid for itself several times. It has never lost time because of storm or needed repairs and, although capable of only eight knots an hour, it plods its way across and around the bay, day after day, transporting 20,000 barrels of oil at a time.

"I don't suppose there will ever be another concrete boat built," Zeh said. "There is no longer any need for them, but this one is far from being the 'dud' it has been called."

DEER DRIVE WILL LAST TWO YEARS

50,000 to Be Brought Out for Butchering.

Anchorage, Alaska.—A great reindeer drive which will take two years and for spectacularity rival the big trail movements of Texan herds in frontier days will be undertaken in an effort to revivify an industry now menaced by lack of marketing facilities.

Under the direction of George Ashenfelter many thousand head of both government and privately owned deer will be driven overland from the Arctic to Broad pass on the Alaskan railroad. The drive may be as large as 50,000.

A similar plan conceived two years ago by the bureau of education was abandoned for lack of funds.

Ashenfelter, a large herd owner, will sponsor the drive, which will mean not only the removal of the deer from the north to a territory reached by rail, but also means a more or less wholesale migration of Eskimo herd owners, most of whom have matriculated in the government schools of husbandry.

"There is not an Eskimo in the Arctic who can support himself on his herd of reindeer," said Ashenfelter, "owing to lack of marketing facilities. The best they can get now for their animals is $10 to $15 a head with the scant population of their country for a market. On this he can not provide the necessities of life for himself and family."

Herds of educated owners total more than 125,000, but if only 50,000 of this number should participate it would create a series of herds stretching from the coast of Bering sea eastward for 100 miles. The drive, expected to start in the early winter months, would be held at the Yukon river until it freezes and then shoved into the headwaters of the Kuskokwim river and later across country to Broad pass, a distance of 300 miles.

Experience has shown that the mortality rate of fawns is too great there when an attempt is made to drive them in the spring—before they are strong enough to stand the hard travel. The route selected is that used by the herds of caribous in their annual fall migrations across the Tanana valley and through Broad pass. Care will be taken to keep the deer and caribou separated because of the penchant of the wild animals to steal the domesticated does.

Innocent Indian FreedAfter Serving 5 Years

Oklahoma City, Okla. — Edward Fluke, thirty, whose Indian stolidity caused him to serve five years in the Oklahoma penitentiary for a murder he did not commit, was pardoned by Gov. M. E. Trapp. Fluke, a quarter-blood Indian, was charged with the murder at Vinita of Harold Fry, a mail carrier, whose charred body was found in a partly burned haystack ten days after he disappeared in 1921.

Fry's motor car was located in possession of Fluke. The latter was arrested, but refused to talk. At his trial Fluke played the part of a silent observer, declined to testify and was convicted. He entered the penitentiary under life sentence.

Two years later Fluke made a statement accusing Levi Jenkins, Indian youth, of the killing. According to Fluke, he was in a motor party which included Fry and Jenkins. Fry represented a remark Jenkins made about a young woman. A quarrel followed, in which Fry was killed.

Jenkins was arrested and convicted of the slaying. He went to the penitentiary in 1923, but Fluke stayed on, too.

The attorney general reported to the governor that Fluke's only crime apparently was in aiding Jenkins to escape. In pardoning him the governor said he believed he had been punished sufficient.

Fish That Cries

In Hongkong harbor, a strange fish, of the size and appearance of a baby's head, has been caught. It is like a big orange, with eyes, mouth, nose, ears, and two small uncommon-looking fins. This curious creature, resembling what the Chinese describe as a "kwal" fish, is popularly known as a mermaid's child, and utters a sound like the cry of a baby. The possession of this fish is said to bring good luck.

PAY ATTENTION TO CAR BRAKES

Failure to Hold Is Due Mostly to Neglect of Owner, Says Hayes.

Motorists who do not enjoy the latest improvements in brakes are missing a good opportunity and overlooking safety by not making a greater effort to get the most from their present brakes is the opinion of Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club.

During this period of transition in brakes, he says, there is an unnecessary tendency toward a double standard of stopping, which can be prevented by getting more out of the brakes on older cars and refraining from using the newer brakes excessively.

"In considering the details of so-called 'brake failure' as a cause of accidents," Hayes explains, "the American Automobile association, found most brake systems were not giving more than 75 per cent of their full efficiency by reason of owner neglect."

Both Kinds Neglected.

"This applied to four-wheel brakes as well as the two-wheel variety. One of the chief reasons for this low efficiency of so important a unit of the car is the failure of the average driver to take advantage of what is known as the wrapping action of the brake bands."

"When bands are of uniform clearance all the way round every square inch of lining comes into contact with the brake drum simultaneously. This causes the band to follow the drum, or to wrap around it. Brake effectiveness is greatly increased, and the car stops with far less effort on the part of the driver."

"Most car owners consider clearance uniformity, as simply a detail which provides for even wear of the linings. Rather than take the trouble to adjust the bands carefully they allow excessive clearance all around, which means that in wet weather the brakes may get water-clogged."

Equality Is Important.

"Comparatively few car owners appreciate the effect of the weather and the elements on the brakes. In damp weather linings will be much more effective than in dry weather, yet few owners will remember to wash the brakes when there is very little natural dampness."

"If oil tends to work out on the right brake band of the rear wheel during hot weather, the simplest remedy is to drive up on the crown of the road instead of allowing the axle to tip to the right so constantly."

Keep Carburetor Clean

The only attention necessary to the carburetor is keeping it clean. There is a drain pocket at the bottom of most of the carburetors which should be cleaned out once in a while by opening the little cock or taking the plug out at the bottom. Shut off the gasoline, remove the float and wipe the deposits out of the float chamber. No adjusting need be done to the carburetor after it has once been set.

Useful Screw Driver

The ordinary screw driver is not adapted to all classes of work. By making a heavy screw driver with the center portion in the form of a heavy square of metal a socket wrench may be placed on the tool so that all the leverage necessary may be obtained.

Poor Brakes a Menace

Inefficient brakes were the cause of 75 per cent of the 679,000 automobile accidents in the United States last year, according to reports reaching the public safety department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Conservation of Tires
Requires Extra Caution

Conservation of tires, urged by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and endorsed by the American Automobile association, must be accompanied by extra caution in driving if the motorist expects to benefit by his plan of lowering rubber prices by saving rubber, according to Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club.

"There would be no gain if motorists failed to recognize the importance of driving with increased care when getting the last few miles out of old tires," declares Mr. Hayes. "There would be only disaster through front-wheel blowouts and skidding."

This is believed to be the first suggestion to automobile owners in general, to temper their economy program with common sense.

"A new tire is a safety device," Mr. Hayes adds. "Its strong carcass is a symbol of security. With it the driver is justified in running at higher car speeds in the country and in operating his car at normal traveling speeds over rough roads where excessive strains are placed on tires. The rough trends of a new tire save skids, provide better traction and assist in stopping. A driver need not consider himself at a disadvantage with old tires, however provided he is provident enough to make his driving conform to his rubber."

"We cannot afford to stretch safety while stretching rubber. Something will snap unless common sense and caution are abundant enough to provide the necessary element of compensation."

Hood Should Be Removed
During Warmer Spell

Don't forget to remove the cover from the front of the radiator when there is a thaw or the weather gets mild for a few days after being quite cold. When the temperature is away down it is of course very wise to partially—if not fully—cover the front of the radiator to prevent the bitter cold from getting the engine too cold for proper operation.

But having adjusted matters for such days, remember that when the warmer spells arrive the shutting out of the air may be too complete, and you will cause the power plant to overheat, often with serious results. The point is that the car driver must use discretion in controlling the radiator's cooling, and on the days when he feels warm he should not expect the engine to take a different view of the matter.

Handy Piece of Canvas

Few car owners realize what a convenient accessory is a little square of canvas, about eighteen inches over all. It saves trousers when you have to kneel to get at some inaccessible part. It keeps the jack from slipping on snow or ice. It keeps the inner tube out of the dust when this part is being inserted by the roadside. It will serve to strain gasoline through; it will keep tools from rattling; it will protect the hand in handling hot parts.

Harden Cast Iron Parts

At times it is desirable to harden medium or small cast iron parts. Here's how: Take a half pint of sulphuric acid two quarts of common salt, one-half pound of saltpeter, two pounds of alum, a quarter-pound of prussiate of potash, quarter-pound of cyanide of potash and dissolve in ten gallons of soft water. Heat the iron to a cherry red and dip in the solution. If the parts are wanted very hard repeated heating and dipping will be necessary.

Handy Riveting Stake

A piece of one-inch round stock, heated and bent in the shape of the letter P, with the final loop not quite completed, makes an admirable bench vise riveting stake. This stake is handy in many riveting and bending jobs around the home garage, relining brake bands bending pipe over, etc.

Making Friends on Road

Sharing the road with others makes friends. Blockading the road makes an unnecessary enemy. You can't afford to make enemies—they may prove expensive.

AMUSEMENTSGowns! Gowns! Gowns!

Forty of the most beautiful gowns ever worn in Hollywood—the style center of America—appear in "Mannequin" James Cruze's production for Paramount of Fannie Hurst's $50,000 prize-winning story.

Each of the gowns is a distinctive conception by Howard Greer, creator of film fashions for Paramount. They range from beautiful evening gowns to negligee wraps of painted silk, afternoon party frocks, sport suits and street dresses.

They are worn during a gorgeous mannequin scene in the fashionable dressmaking establishment, in which beautiful Dolores Costello plays the role of the principal mannequin, assisted by Charlot Bird and Bess Flowers.

The mannequin shop presents as fine an appearance as anything in Paris.

A special feature of the set was a collection of 10 gorgeous ostrich feather fans. This collection, in Greer's department, is declared to be one of the finest in America. A jewel case exhibit was also part of the show. Two special watchmen were placed on the set day and night to guard it.

To the spectators in the room during the scenes when the mannequins displayed the latest thing in 1926 gowns, five little Chinese girls, in costume, passed tea during the performance.

The walls of the inner rooms of the dressmaking establishment were unique in that they were decorated with the actual sketches from which the gowns were displayed before the spectators were made. These sketches were the original ones made by Greer in designing the stunning creations.

"Mannequin," a human interest story of dramatic events brought by destiny into the lives of average folks which opens Monday at the Met theater features Alice Joyce, Warner Baxter, Dolores Costello and ZaSu Pitts.

HARTMAN THEATER.

"New Brooms," the famous comedy triumph written by Frank Craven and in which he starred for a time, will be the second offering, starting Monday night, April 26, by the Hartman Stock company which Lee M. and Robert F. Boda, who have had charge of the Hartman theater, Columbus, ever since it was built, are presenting this season in association with Ambrose M. Miller, of New York.

This is the first time that the Boda have ever sponsored their own stock company directly and two cars of scenic and electrical equipment were brought on from New York in order to maintain the high standard of the regular winter season. John Hayden, the director, has five or six productions on Broadway now that he has directed, and it was only after considerable persuasion that he came to Columbus.

"New Brooms" was booked to play the Hartman this past season but it could not be crowded in so this will be the first opportunity patrons here will have of seeing this great comedy. Critics everywhere have hailed it as the best work of Frank Craven, and the roles will be in the capable hands company. Jean Ford and Donn Cook of the members of the Hartman Stock having just finished a season on tour play the leading roles, both of them with Mrs. Fiske in the all star, "The Rivals." Other members of the company are Georgia Neese, John Lott, William Ingersoll and Gilberta Faust, who made many friends in Columbus last season; Martha Lee Manners, Neil McAfee, Forrest Orr, Elise Bristol and Frank Milan.

Allen Hale's orchestra plays for dancing in the foyer, thirty minutes before the play and during intermissions. As a special afternoon feature the orchestra will play for thirty minutes after each matinee. Matinees and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Prices range from fifty cents to one dollar at night and twenty-five and fifty cents at the matinees. Season reservation lists are still open.

DIG UP TOWER AS LARGE AS BABYLON

Discovered by Scientists in Ancient Kish.

Chicago.—D. C. Davies, director of the Field museum, received a report from the scientists of the Field museum and Oxford university who are unearthing temples and towers in the vast ruins of the ancient city of Kish.

With a corps of 150 men Prof. Stephen Langdon is attacking an enormous group of mounds in what was central Kish, when the city flourished as the capital of the world's earliest civilization.

There preliminary excavations have uncovered the remains of at least three temples and two towers, the latter as large as the historic Tower of Babylon, the report states.

A mystery statue of a headless woman, with hands clasped in a manner unlike that of the previously known Sumerian custom, was found in the debris of one of the towers.

On the back of the right shoulder of the figure is engraved an inscription in seven lines, of which the first two are hopelessly eroded. While the script indicates the pre-Sargonid period and points to the age of the late kingdom of Kish, 2850, B. C., the style of dress indicates a later period, Professor Langdon stated.

U. S. to Sell Island Once Pirate's Haunt

Washington.—The successful bidder for the Gasparilla Island military reservation, located near the entrance to Charlotte harbor, in Lee county, Florida, recently offered for sale by the War department, will be the possessor of a real pirate's lair. Whether he will find pirate treasure hidden away in a cave or buried leagues below the surface is another matter.

When the department first announced that sealed bids had been asked for the 532-acre reservation on the island, which is no longer needed for military purposes, the fact that the island had been named for the pirate Gasparilla was overlooked. The exploits of Gasparilla along the Florida coast played an important role in the romantic history of the state. It is said that the island was the favorite treasure-hiding stronghold of Gasparilla.

The reservation is well below the frost line and semi-tropical climatic conditions prevail throughout the year. This section was the base of operations during the Indian war of 1835-1842 and was an important military center during the Everglades campaign.

Economy in Headwear—STETSON HATS

CONSIDERED from the standpoint of the length of time you wear it, a Stetson is the cheapest hat you can buy. The smart style is an added attraction that costs you nothing, but it's a big factor in hat-satisfaction—an unbecoming style looks better on the shelf.

Our Stetson styles for this season will not stay here very long,—they will go out quickly on the heads of satisfied wearers.

BLUE AND RED ARMIES SIGN TRUCE IN AIR WAR

Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, April 22.—A truce between the opposing air forces of the American "Blue" army and the mythical "Red" enemy was theoretically signed tonight for tomorrow to permit the officers participating in the maneuvers here to spend the day at McCook Field experiment station or army air service.

The next maneuvers will take place Saturday morning when further bombing operations against Ohio River bridges at Cincinnati and an attack on the "Red" airdrome there will be carried out. Circleville, as today, will be the concentration point for the planes because of the objection to sending a large number of aircraft over Cincinnati.

"TWO GUN"

Farm Boy Lyon Convicted of Murder in First Degree.

Norwalk, April 23.—(UP.)—A death watch trained a battery of machine guns on the county jail today where James Lyon, the two-gun farm boy convicted of killing Detective Frank E. McGrath, awaited court action that may stave off death in the electric chair.

Unless the court intervenes and grants the young desperado a new trial, he will die in the electric chair at the state penitentiary at the end of three months.

Young Lyon's doom was pronounced by a jury of nine men and three women at 8 o'clock last night after seven hours and fifteen minutes' deliberation.

Mercy was not recommended, thus automatically imposing the death penalty.

COLONEL BELL MANAGER FOR THAD H. BROWN

Wooster Man Admires Clean
Cut Administration of
Secretary of State.

Colonel Sam. H. Bell, of Wooster, will direct the campaign of Thad Brown for the Republican gubernatorial nomination it was announced Saturday by the secretary of state. Colonel Bell will be chairman of the Thad Brown for Governor league which consists of prominent Republicans in every section of the state. This league will have active charge of the Columbus man's campaign for the governorship.

Col. Bell is manager and part owner of the firm of Bell Brothers, nationally known for the last fifty years as breeders and dealers in Percheron and Belgian horses. During the World war he served 22 months, serving a year in France with the A. E. F. He holds a commission as a lieutenant colonel in the Reserve corps at the present time.

"I have assumed the sponsorship of Thad Brown's campaign because of the clean cut manner in which he has administered the public trust during his administration as secretary of state," declared Colonel Bell in announcing his acceptance of the chairmanship. "I feel that the time has come when Ohio shall once more take its place among Republican states with a Republican governor and believe this can only be accomplished by offering as a candidate an outstanding man with a clean record such as that of Thad Brown. His vote getting ability has been shown in the past, particularly in his last majority of 521,640 over his Democratic opponent for secretary of state. His record as a public official is such that the voters of Ohio cannot but appreciate the service he has rendered."

Colonel Bell announced that Mrs. Thad Brown has been named as vice-chairman of the Brown for Governor league, and head of the women's division. Mrs. Brown is an alumna of Ohio State university and Western College for Women, at Oxford. She is a member of the women's board of the Columbus Children's hospital and also of the Big Sister's association. Mrs. Brown is vice-president of the Women's council of the Broad street Presbyterian church, a member of the Women's Auxiliary, American Legion, the Matrix-Women's Journalistic Honorary society and the Franklin county Republican executive committee.

J. E. Baird, of Bowling Green, will act as secretary of the league. Mr. Baird is the present assistant secretary of state.

Organization of the league's executive committee has already begun under the direction of Colonel Bell, Mrs. Brown and Mr. Baird, and the personnel of this committee will be announced in a short time.

University of California Owns Maximilian's Library

Berkeley, Cal.—The library of the University of California contains 5,000 volumes once the property of Emperor Maximilian, archduke of Austria, who ruled in Mexico City from 1864 to 1867. Students are permitted to take these rare books out of the building and the general public has the privilege of reading them on the campus.

After Maximilian's death, the library reached the hands of Don Jose Maria Andrade, a famous collector. At an auction in Leipzig, Germany, in 1869, Hubert Howe Bancroft, the historian, purchased them and in 1901 the entire Bancroft library came into the possession of the University.

E. L. DOHENY REGISTERS AS REPUBLICAN

Political affiliations of Edward L. Doheny, who for years was an influential figure in Democratic ranks have been transferred to the Republican party.

In the background politically since his split with the Democrats over the naval oil reserve scandal in 1924, the oil producer announced in an interview Friday night that he had registered as a Republican for the first time "because I decided to affiliate with and support the party which more than any other embodies the forces and policies which have produced our unprecedented era of prosperity."

Altho Mr. Doheny spoke of his registration as his first affiliation with the Republican party, William Kerr, registrar of voters, said that records showed the oil magnate had registered as a Republican in 1922 and 1924, his last registration as a Democrat being in 1920.

Sir Oliver Lodge Claims Radio Problem Is Solved

London.—The Evening Standard says that, after three years of research, Sir Oliver Lodge, the eminent scientist, has solved the problem of the wireless "howler" or oscillator, which has baffled experts throughout the world.

Briefly, the paper says, the discovery will insure perfect reception without aerial tuning thus avoiding the use of reaction (regeneration). It will not add to the cost of new sets, but will mean the alteration of existing receivers.

Sir Oliver expects to publish the results of his activities soon.

Tailor-made Costumes

Among Dog's Necessities

New York.—France, a four-pound black and tan exponent of what the well-dressed dog will wear, arrived on the liner Olympic from France with his master and mistress, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Williams of New York, who said France cost them $4,000 a year.

The trip, Mrs. Williams said, was made to replenish France's wardrobe at a fancy tailor's shop in Paris. It included, she explained, spring styles, in sport clothes, with pockets for gloves and handkerchiefs; evening clothes, morning costumes, pajamas and other "necessities."

France, his mistress said, seldom drank, but appreciated good liquor in a mild highball at tea time. American bootleg, however, is offensive to France's taste.

She said she and Mr. Williams had four other dogs, the annual expense of which was $23,000 a year.

Mrs. Williams explained that in figuring the annual expenses of her dogs she always included the money she spent on them for travel, hotel accommodations, food and wardrobes.

YOUNG WOMAN WAS KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Miss Wanda Scott Met Death and Companions Hurt—Auto Struck Bridge.

In an accident Friday evening near the Caldwell farm on the Jackson pike, Miss Wanda Scott, of 884 Buck street, Columbus, was killed and Howard Shick and William Horsbach, also of Columbus, were injured. Mr. Shick sustained a broken arm and Mr. Horsbach's back was injured. The former was taken to his home and the latter was taken to Mercy hospital. Dr. Lloyd Jonnes gave the injured first aid.

The Mader & Ebert ambulance took the body of the girl to Schoedinger's undertaking establishment in Columbus and the injured were taken to Columbus by their friends in other cars.

The driver of the car was unable to keep the road and negotiate a hill that ends near a bridge, his machine ran off the road and in coming back ran into a tree, swerved and hit the end of a girder on the bridge and the car toppled over going into a small ditch upside down. Miss Scott's skull was fractured and she was removed to the home of Ot Rader near the scene of the accident, where she died.

She was eighteen years of age and was a daughter of Mrs. Rowland Esswein. Miss Scott had accompanied a party of fifteen of her friends from Columbus early in the evening to this county, where they enjoyed a weiner and marshmallow roast on the farm of William Hoover. About 11 o'clock the party broke up and started homeward.

The crash of the machine when it struck the bridge was heard by Mr. and Mrs. Rader in their home. They had just returned and they answered the call for help and did everything in their power to help the unfortunate party.

Blotting Paper

Housekeepers who have learned the value of white blotting paper keep a supply on hand. It is so useful in taking up water spilled on a polished table, or when grease is dropped on table linen during the meal. It acts much quicker than a cloth or napkin and does not absorb obtrusively. It is excellent for absorbing grease from fritted plates and other cookery.

Danger in Acetylene Torch

The flame of an acetylene torch is injurious to the eye in proportion to its brightness. If it is so bright that on looking at it and then winking the eyes an outline of the flame can be seen on the retina, goggles should be worn. The effect is the same as that of looking directly at the sun. The parts of the retina affected are apt to be permanently injured.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS

Washington, April 22.—(UP.)—Mayor William Dever, of Chicago told the Senate Prohibition Committee today that he threatened to go to President Coolidge before he could get co-operation of federal authorities in stamping out liquor corruption.

His testimony climaxed the day in the prohibition hearing which was featured by revelations of expenditures of E. C. Dinwiddie, superintendent of the National Temperance Bureau, in agitating for prohibition, and the plea of J. Pat Murphy, postmaster-preacher-bartender of the Kentucky hills, that prohibition be maintained.

Dinwiddie said his organization has received around $16,000 for prohibition agitation in the last two years.

Murphy declared prohibition had transferred the mountains of Kentucky and West Virginia from a "hell spot of shooting irons into a nice quiet place to live."

Formation of the Tidewater-Associated Oil Company by merger of the Associated Oil Co., and the Tidewater Company is not in violation of anti-trust laws, Attorney General Sargent announced today. Department of justice agents investigated the merger, and Sargent said their reports did not warrant instituting action under the anti-trust laws against the company. The government he said, could reopen the case at any time.

The Holiday bill, designed to rid the country of alien criminals, was reported favorably to the House today by the immigration committee. The measure provides for immediate deportation of aliens, gunmen and peddlers of narcotics.

The House agriculture committee today voted to authorize Rep. Aswell, Democrat, Louisiana, to submit his farm relief bill to the House together with the Tincher and Haugen bills when they should be reported. Aswell's bill with a $10,000,000 appropriation, would set up a national system of co-operative marketing and create an agency to function in an administrative capacity. Meanwhile, Chairman Snell, Republican, New York, of the Rule Committee, announced that agriculture legislation would be given the right of way in the House as soon as a report was made by the agriculture committee.

For the tenth time in the history of the Nation, House managers appeared in the Senate today to advise conviction of an impeached federal official. At 2 p. m. nine selected managers filed into the Senate chamber behind the sergeant-at-arms to report the impeachment of Judge Geo. W. English for the southern district of Illinois and ask the Senate to try him.

The Jones bill granting consent of Congress to W. D. Comer and Wesley Vandercok to construct a bridge across the Columbia River from Long View, Washington, to Rainier, Oregon, was reported favorably today by the Senate commerce commission.

Recovered Lost Money

After being covered with hay for more than six months in a mow on the Sheddick farm, at South Woodstock, Vt., where it was lost early last July, a pocketbook containing a ten-dollar bill and some small change was found, musty, and showing that it had been nibbled by mice, but with its contents intact. It belonged to William Burns. Mr. Burns lost the purse while haying. Careful search was made for it the following day.

The girl was found in an institution in this city by her mother, Mrs. Annie Springer, after she had received a letter from a friend giving her the tip. The girl said her father had brought her here.

Reading by Sound

Teaching the blind to read by means of different shades of sound is a new and remarkable method invented by Professor Rosing, an oculist of Leningrad, Russia, says Popular Science Monthly. Every letter of the alphabet will be expressed by a different sound. So far, sounds have been contrived for 18 letters of the alphabet. The sounds are used, too, to see objects. Experiments showed, it is claimed, that children using the sound apparatus were able to define many articles in a room and recognize persons who were passing.

He did his gift-shopping at the jeweler's!

A JEWELRY PURCHASE IS AN INVESTMENT IN PERMANENT VALUES

MEN and nations pass. But their jewels remain.

Of all the possessions of ancient civilizations, the most enduring have been the tokens wrought in precious stones and metals.

Gone are the palaces of Egyptian kings; their gorgeous apparel and equipages. But scattered among the museums of today, in all parts of the world, many of their jewels are still intact; more beautiful and infinitely more valuable than ever.

Today, as always, a purchase at the jeweler's is an investment in permanent values.

Jewelry is one of the few luxury commodities which can be "consumed" year by year, decade after decade, without materially lessening the quantity or quality of the basic value!

Building up a line of jewelry means building up an asset-heritage for future generations, while enjoying the delight and charm of beautiful adornment in the building. The jewelry business is among the fastest-growing in America, because, more and more, keen Americans are putting their shopping money into imperishable values.

OLD "STONE BOAT" STILL AT WORK IN SAN FRANCISCO BAY

Concrete Ship McKittrick Belies the Derision Handed It in Shipping Circles.

San Francisco, Cal.—Alluded to as "It" by seafaring men rather than "she" as is befitting any worthy seagoing craft of steel or wood, the concrete ship McKittrick is doing daily duty in the bay of San Francisco that belies the derision of shipping circles.

Although the war was over before the McKittrick took the ways—under the coldly official designation of "Concrete Tanker No. 1"—the ship was nevertheless, a creature of the great conflict. Its genesis was the need of the nation to build boats faster than the enemy's submarines could sink them.

Private builders working under the critical eye of the government laid down three concrete vessels of 7,500 tons. The first of these, the Faith, was at the outset pronounced a success for it made the trial trip in first-class fashion. But under more severe conditions it developed a condemning unwieldiness. Similarly, the other two proved failures, but profiting by experience, the government had the tanker built.

A lighter mixture was used and improvements were effected in the steel reinforcing. Triple expansion engines of 1,500-horse power were installed. The tanker went to Mexico on its test and, returning with a load of oil, weathered a tremendous storm in the Caribbean sea. The commanding officer declared it as seaworthy as any ship he had ever handled; but the war was over.

There was not a plentiful supply of steel and timber. The boat which had cost about a half million to build was about to be sold by the shipping board for $15,000.

George D. Zeh, traffic manager of the Associated Oil company, thought the tanker was worth more than this to his company. He was deaf to the ridicule of his associates and negotiated the purchase.

Zeh has kept a record of the tanker's performance and the "stone boat" about which he has been joshed has paid for itself several times. It has never lost time because of storm or needed repairs and, although capable of only eight knots an hour, it plods its way across and around the bay, day after day, transporting 20,000 barrels of oil at a time.

"I don't suppose there will ever be another concrete boat built," Zeh said. "There is no longer any need for them, but this one is far from being the 'dud' it has been called."

DEER DRIVE WILL LAST TWO YEARS

50,000 to Be Brought Out for Butchering.

Anchorage, Alaska.—A great reindeer drive which will take two years and for spectacularity rival the big trail movements of Texan herds in frontier days will be undertaken in an effort to revivify an industry now menaced by lack of marketing facilities.

Under the direction of George Ashenfelter many thousand head of both government and privately owned deer will be driven overland from the Arctic to Broad pass on the Alaskan railroad. The drive may be as large as 50,000.

A similar plan conceived two years ago by the bureau of education was abandoned for lack of funds.

Ashenfelter, a large herd owner, will sponsor the drive, which will mean not only the removal of the deer from the north to a territory reached by rail, but also means a more or less wholesale migration of Eskimo herd owners, most of whom have matriculated in the government schools of husbandry.

"There is not an Eskimo in the Arctic who can support himself on his herd of reindeer," said Ashenfelter, "owing to lack of marketing facilities. The best they can get now for their animals is $10 to $15 a head with the scant population of their country for a market. On this he can not provide the necessities of life for himself and family."

Herds of educated owners total more than 125,000, but if only 50,000 of this number should participate it would create a series of herds stretching from the coast of Bering sea eastward for 100 miles. The drive, expected to start in the early winter months, would be held at the Yukon river until it freezes and then shoved into the headwaters of the Kuskokwim river and later across country to Broad pass, a distance of 300 miles.

Experience has shown that the mortality rate of fawns is too great there when an attempt is made to drive them in the spring—before they are strong enough to stand the hard travel. The route selected is that used by the herds of caribous in their annual fall migrations across the Tanana valley and through Broad pass. Care will be taken to keep the deer and caribou separated because of the penchant of the wild animals to steal the domesticated does.

Innocent Indian FreedAfter Serving 5 Years

Oklahoma City, Okla. — Edward Fluke, thirty, whose Indian stock caused him to serve five years in the Oklahoma penitentiary for a murder he did not commit, was pardoned by Gov. M. E. Trapp. Fluke, a quarter-blood Indian, was charged with the murder at Vinita of Harold Fry, a mail carrier, whose charred body was found in a partly burned haystack ten days after he disappeared in 1921.

Fry's motor car was located in possession of Fluke. The latter was arrested, but refused to talk. At his trial Fluke played the part of a silent observer, declined to testify and was convicted. He entered the penitentiary under life sentence.

Two years later Fluke made a statement accusing Levi Jenkins, Indian youth, of the killing. According to Fluke, he was in a motor party which included Fry and Jenkins. Fry resented a remark Jenkins made about a young woman. A quarrel followed, in which Fry was killed.

Jenkins was arrested and convicted of the slaying. He went to the penitentiary in 1923, but Fluke stayed on, too.

The attorney general reported to the governor that Fluke's only crime apparently was in aiding Jenkins to escape. In pardoning him the governor said he believed he had been punished sufficient.

Fish That Cries

In Hongkong harbor, a strange fish, of the size and appearance of a baby's head, has been caught. It is like a big orange, with eyes, mouth, nose, ears, and two small uncommon-looking fins. This curious creature, resembling what the Chinese describe as a "kwal" fish, is popularly known as a mermaid's child, and utters a sound like the cry of a baby. The possession of this fish is said to bring good luck.

PAY ATTENTION
TO CAR BRAKES*Failure to Hold Is Due Mostly to Neglect of Owner, Says Hayes.

Motorists who do not enjoy the latest improvements in brakes are missing a good opportunity and overlooking safety by not making a greater effort to get the most from their present brakes is the opinion of Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club.

During this period of transition in brakes, he says, there is an unnecessary tendency toward a double standard of stopping, which can be prevented by getting more out of the brakes on older cars and refraining from using the newer brakes excessively.

"In considering the details of so-called 'brake failure' as a cause of accidents," Hayes explains, "the American Automobile association found most brake systems were not giving more than 75 per cent of their full efficiency by reason of owner neglect."

Both Kinds Neglected.

"This applied to four-wheel brakes as well as the two-wheel variety. One of the chief reasons for this low efficiency of so important a unit of the car is the failure of the average driver to take advantage of what is known as the wrapping action of the brake bands."

"When bands are of uniform clearance all the way round every square inch of lining comes into contact with the brake drum simultaneously. This causes the band to follow the drum, or to wrap around it. Brake effectiveness is greatly increased, and the car stops with far less effort on the part of the driver."

"Most car owners consider clearance uniformly, as simply a detail which provides for even wear of the linings. Rather than take the trouble to adjust the bands carefully they allow excessive clearance all around, which means that in wet weather the brakes may get water-clogged."

Equality Is Important.

"Comparatively few car owners appreciate the effect of the weather and the elements on the brakes. In damp weather linings will be much more effective than in dry weather, yet few owners will remember to wash the brakes when there is very little natural dampness."

"If all tends to work out on the right brake band of the rear wheel during hot weather, the simplest remedy is to drive up on the crown of the road instead of allowing the axle to tip to the right so constantly."

Keep Carburetor Clean

The only attention necessary to the carburetor is keeping it clean. There is a drain pocket at the bottom of most of the carburetors which should be cleaned out once in a while by opening the little cock or taking the plug out at the bottom. Shut off the gasoline, remove the float and wipe the deposits out of the float chamber. No adjusting need be done to the carburetor after it has once been set.

Useful Screw Driver

The ordinary screw driver is not adapted to all classes of work. By making a heavy screw driver with the center portion in the form of a heavy square of metal a socket wrench may be placed on the tool so that all the leverage necessary may be obtained.

Poor Brakes a Menace

Inefficient brakes were the cause of 75 per cent of the 679,000 automobile accidents in the United States last year, according to reports reaching the public safety department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Conservation of Tires
Requires Extra Caution

Conservation of tires, urged by Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and endorsed by the American Automobile association, must be accompanied by extra caution in driving if the motorist expects to benefit by his plan of lowering rubber prices by saving rubber, according to Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club.

"There would be no gain if motorists failed to recognize the importance of driving with increased care when getting the last few miles out of old tires," declares Mr. Hayes. "There would be only disaster through front-wheel blowouts and skidding."

This is believed to be the first suggestion to automobile owners in general, to temper their economy program with common sense.

"A new tire is a safety device," Mr. Hayes adds. "Its strong carcass is a symbol of security. With it the driver is justified in running at higher car speeds in the country and in operating his car at normal traveling speeds over rough roads where excessive strains are placed on tires. The rough treads of a new tire save skids, provide better traction and assist in stopping. A driver need not consider himself at a disadvantage with old tires, however provided he is provident enough to make his driving conform to his rubber."

"We cannot afford to stretch safety while stretching rubber. Something will snap unless common sense and caution are abundant enough to provide the necessary element of compensation."

Hood Should Be Removed
During Warmer Spell

Don't forget to remove the cover from the front of the radiator when there is a thaw or the weather gets mild for a few days after being quite cold. When the temperature is away down it is of course very wise to partially—if not fully—cover the front of the radiator to prevent the bitter cold from getting the engine too cold for proper operation.

But having adjusted matters for such days, remember that when the warmer spells arrive the shutting out of the air may be too complete, and you will cause the power plant to overheat, often with serious results. The point is that the car driver must use discretion in controlling the radiator's cooling, and on the days when he feels warm he should not expect the engine to take a different view of the matter.

Handy Piece of Canvas

Few car owners realize what a convenient accessory is a little square of canvas, about eighteen inches over all. It saves trousers when you have to kneel to get at some inaccessible part. It keeps the jack from slipping on snow or ice. It keeps the inner tube out of the dust when this part is being inserted by the roadside. It will serve to strain gasoline through; it will keep tools from rattling; it will protect the hand in handling hot parts.

Harden Cast Iron Parts

At times it is desirable to harden medium or small cast iron parts. Here's how: Take a half pint of sulphuric acid two quarts of common salt, one-half pound of saltpeter, two pounds of alum, a quarter-pound of prussiate of potash, quarter-pound of cyanide of potash and dissolve in ten gallons of soft water. Heat the iron to a cherry red and dip in the solution. If the parts are wanted very hard repeated heating and dipping will be necessary.

Handy Riveting Stake

A piece of one-inch round stock, heated and bent in the shape of the letter P, with the final loop not quite completed, makes an admirable handy riveting stake. This stake is handy in many riveting and bending jobs around the home garage, relining brake bands, bending pipe over, etc.

Making Friends on Road

Sharing the road with others makes friends. Blocking the road makes an unnecessary enemy. You can't afford to make enemies—they may prove expensive.

AMUSEMENTS

Gowns! Gowns! Gowns!

Forty of the most beautiful gowns ever worn in Hollywood—the style center of America—appear in "Mannequin" James Cruze's production for Paramount of Fannie Hurst's $50,000 prize-winning story.

Each of the gowns is a distinctive conception by Howard Greer, creator of film fashions for Paramount. They range from beautiful evening gowns to negligee wraps of painted silk, afternoon party frocks, sport suits and street dresses.

They are worn during a gorgeous mannequin scene in the fashionable dressmaking establishment, in which beautiful Dolores Costello plays the role of the principal mannequin, assisted by Charlot Bird and Bess Flowers.

The mannequin shop presents as fine an appearance as anything in Paris.

A special feature of the set was a collection of 10 gorgeous ostrich feather fans. This collection, in Greer's department, is declared to be one of the finest in America. A jewel case exhibit was also part of the show. Two special watchmen were placed on the set day and night to guard it.

To the spectators in the room during the scenes when the mannequins displayed the latest thing in 1926 gowns, five little Chinese girls, in costume, passed tea during the performance.

The walls of the inner rooms of the dressmaking establishment were unique in that they were decorated with the actual sketches from which the gowns were displayed before the spectators were made. These sketches were the original ones made by Greer in designing the stunning creations.

"Mannequin," a human interest story of dramatic events brought by destiny into the lives of average folks which opens Monday at the Met theater features Alice Joyce, Warner Baxter, Dolores Costello and ZaSu Pitts.

It could hardly be called that.

Yet, many a time it has been said that it is a crime to let shoes go too long before having them resoled.

HARTMAN THEATER.

"New Brooms," the famous comedy triumph written by Frank Graven and in which he starred for a time, will be the second offering, starting Monday night, April 26, by the Hartman Stock company which Lee M. and Robert F. Boda, who have had charge of the Hartman theater, Columbus, ever since it was built, are presenting this season in association with Ambrose M. Miller, of New York.

This is the first time that the Bodas have ever sponsored their own stock company directly and two cars of scenic and electrical equipment were brought on from New York in order to maintain the high standard of the regular winter season. John Hayden, the director, has five or six productions on Broadway now that he has directed, and it was only after considerable persuasion that he came to Columbus.

"New Brooms" was booked to play the Hartman this past season but it could not be crowded in so this will be the first opportunity patrons here will have of seeing this great comedy. Critics everywhere have hailed it as the best work of Frank Graven, and the roles will be in the capable hands company. Jean Ford and Donn Cook of the members of the Hartman Stock having just finished a season on tour play the leading roles, both of them with Mrs. Fiske in the all star, "The Rivals." Other members of the company are Georgia Neese, John Lott, William Ingersoll and Gilberta Faust, who made many friends in Columbus last season; Martha Lee Manners, Neil McAfee, Forrest Orr, Elise Bristol and Frank Milan.

Allen Hale's orchestra plays for dancing in the foyer, thirty minutes before the play and during intermissions. As a special afternoon feature the orchestra will play for thirty minutes after each matinee. Matinees and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Prices range from fifty cents to one dollar at night, and twenty-five and fifty cents at the matinees. Season reservation lists are still open.

DIG UP TOWER AS LARGE AS BABYLON

Discovered by Scientists in Ancient Kish.

Chicago.—D. C. Davies, director of the Field museum, received a report from the scientists of the Field museum and Oxford university who are unearthing temples and towers in the vast ruins of the ancient city of Kish.

With a corps of 150 men Prof. Stephen Langdon is attacking an enormous group of mounds in what was central Kish, when the city flourished as the capital of the world's earliest civilization.

There preliminary excavations have uncovered the remains of at least three temples and two towers, the latter as large as the historic Tower of Babylon, the report states.

A mystery statue of a headless woman, with hands clasped in a manner unlike that of the previously known Sumerian custom, was found in the debris of one of the towers.

On the back of the right shoulder of the figure is engraved an inscription in seven lines, of which the first two are hopelessly eroded. While the script indicates the pre-Sarjonic period and points to the age of the late kingdom of Kish, 2850, B. C., the style of dress indicates a later period, Professor Langdon stated.

Printed silks again come to the fore with the advent of summer frocks. This frock, worn by Pauline Starke, has a smart scarf neckline.

U. S. to Sell Island Once Pirate's Haunt

Washington.—The successful bidder for the Gasparilla Island military reservation, located near the entrance to Charlotte harbor, in Lee county, Florida, recently offered for sale by the War department, will be the possessor of a real pirate's lair. Whether he will find pirate treasure hidden away in a cave or buried leagues below the surface is another matter.

When the department first announced that sealed bids had been asked for the 532-acre reservation on the island, which is no longer needed for military purposes, the fact that the island had been named for the pirate Gasparilla was overlooked. The exploits of Gasparilla along the Florida coast played an important role in the romantic history of the state. It is said that the island was the favorite treasure-hiding stronghold of Gasparilla.

The reservation is well below the frost line and semi-tropical climatic conditions prevail throughout the year. This section was the base of operations during the Indian war of 1835-1842 and was an important military center during the Everglades campaign.

Economy in Headwear—STETSON HATS

CONSIDERED from the standpoint of the length of time you wear it, a Stetson is the cheapest hat you can buy. The smart style is an added attraction that costs you nothing, but it's a big factor in hat-satisfaction—an unbecoming style looks better on the shelf.

Our Stetson styles for this season will not stay here very long,—they will go out quickly on the heads of satisfied wearers.

BLUE AND RED ARMIES SIGN TRUCE IN AIR WAR

Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, April 22.—A truce between the opposing air forces of the American "Blue" army and the mythical "Red" enemy was theoretically signed tonight for tomorrow to permit the officers participating in the maneuvers here to spend the day at McCook Field experiment station or army air service.

The next maneuvers will take place Saturday morning when further bombing operations against Ohio River bridges at Cincinnati and an attack on the "Red" airbase there will be carried out. Circleville, as today, will be the concentration point for the planes because of the objection to sending a large number of aircraft over Cincinnati.

"TWO GUN"

Farm Boy Lyon Convicted of Murder in First Degree.

Norwalk, April 23.—(UP.)—A death watch trained a battery of machine guns on the county jail today where James Lyon, the two-gun farm boy convicted of killing Detective Frank E. McGrath, awaited court action that may stave off death in the electric chair.

Unless the court intervenes and grants the young desperado a new trial, he will die in the electric chair at the state penitentiary at the end of three months.

Young Lyon's doom was pronounced by a jury of nine men and three women at 8 o'clock last night after seven hours and fifteen minutes' deliberation.

Mercy was not recommended, thus automatically imposing the death penalty.

COLONEL BELL MANAGER FOR THAD H. BROWN

Wooster Man Admires Clean
Cut Administration of
Secretary of State.

Colonel Sam. H. Bell, of Wooster, will direct the campaign of Thad Brown for the Republican gubernatorial nomination it was announced
Saturday by the secretary of state.
Colonel Bell will be chairman of the Thad Brown for Governor league which consists of prominent Republicans in every section of the state.
This league will have active charge of the Columbus man's campaign for the governorship.

Col. Bell is manager and part owner of the firm of Bell Brothers, nationally known for the last fifty years as breeders and dealers in Percheron and Belgian horses. During the World war he served 22 months, serving a year in France with the A. E.
F. He holds a commission as a lieutenant colonel in the Reserve corps at the present time.

"I have assumed the sponsorship of Thad Brown's campaign because of the clean cut manner in which he has administered the public trust during his administration as secretary of state," declared Colonel Bell in announcing his acceptance of the chairmanship. "I feel that the time has come when Ohio shall once more take its place among Republican states with a Republican governor and believe this can only be accomplished by offering as a candidate an outstanding man with a clean record such as that of Thad Brown. His vote getting ability has been shown in the past, particularly in his last majority of 521,640 over his Democratic opponent for secretary of state. His record as a public official is such that the voters of Ohio cannot but appreciate the service he has rendered."

Colonel Bell announced that Mrs.
Thad Brown has been named as vice-chairman of the Brown for Governor league, and head of the women's division. Mrs. Brown is an alumnus of Ohio State university and Western College for Women, at Oxford. She is a member of the women's board of the Columbus Children's hospital and also of the Big Sister's association.
Mrs. Brown is vice-president of the Women's council of the Broad street
Presbyterian church, a member of the Women's Auxiliary, American Legion,
the Matrix-Women's Journalistic Honorary society and the Franklin county
Republican executive committee.

J. E. Baird, of Bowling Green, will act as secretary of the league. Mr.
Baird is the present assistant secretary of state.

Organization of the league's executive committee has already begun
under the direction of Colonel Bell, Mrs. Brown and Mr. Baird, and the personnel of this committee will be announced in a short time.

University of California Owns Maximilian's Library

Berkeley, Cal.—The library of the University of California contains 5,000 volumes once the property of Emperor Maximilian, archduke of Austria, who ruled in Mexico City from 1864 to 1867. Students are permitted to take these rare books out of the building and the general public has the privilege of reading them on the campus.
After Maximilian's death, the library reached the hands of Don Jose
Maria Andrade, a famous collector.
At an auction in Leipzig, Germany, in 1869, Hubert Howe Bancroft, the historian, purchased them and in 1901 the entire Bancroft library came into the possession of the University.

Easy to Fix

A young woman who was departing for the Riviera called for her passport.
"I'm sorry, madam," said the clerk,
"but there's been a mistake. We've got your hair down as dark instead of fair." "Oh, well," said the traveler,
"will you alter it—or shall I?"
